Profile

I act as an independent arbitrator and mediator in domestic and international commercial disputes. I regularly serve as sole arbitrator, chair, and co-arbitrator in proceedings conducted under a range of institutional rules as well as in ad hoc arbitrations, seated in different jurisdictions and governed by different substantive laws. I also act as mediator in commercial disputes.

My work as an arbitrator and mediator draws on extensive experience from complex commercial disputes, including prior roles as counsel and partner in commercial law firms, as well as senior leadership and decision-making positions within a leading arbitration institution. I am accustomed to working in multi-party and cross-border proceedings and to addressing procedural and substantive issues arising in diverse legal and cultural contexts.

In addition to my appointment work, I am a frequent lecturer and speaker on arbitration, mediation, and dispute-resolution related topics, and I regularly contribute to professional training programmes and discussions within the arbitration community.
